

THE PRODIGAL SON

Have I ever been impatient with God?

Have I ever wasted the gifts that God has given me?

Have I ever needed God's mercy and forgiveness?

When have I felt God's love? Even if I've been a long way off

Have I ever been jealous of what God has done for others?

What gifts has God given me? How does He show me His love?

Have I ever had an experience of being 'found'?
